COMMERCIAL AND MONEY MATTERS.

For Sales of Stocks, &c. see Fourth Page.

FARADY, P. M.

The fancies continue to improve somewhat, and the market is gradually working back to the point it fell from when the Tariff bill passed. The transactions are to moderate extent, many of the leading operators being still away, and the public at large are not in the speculative mood just now. For investment stocks the demand is limited, but quotations are firm. The unsettled state of Governmental financial arrangements has also an influence on the stock market as capitalists are unwilling to make important movements while this state of things continues. At the Second Board prices were higher. Harlen went up to 50.

There is but a dull market for foreign bills, although tomorrow is pay day for the Great Britain—Gold Sterling can be had at 74 2/3. France 40 2/3.57. Remittances appear to be indolent to do much at present in the way of arrangements for new business.

Freights remain without much activity. Cotton is 32 1/2-33d for Liverpool. Shipmusters are firm at 34 sterling for flour.

To-morrow is Report day for the Banks of this State, and it is anticipated that after there will be some relief in the money market. Still as far as we can learn, the banks have not been contracting a great deal, and will not extend much above the last inst.

Two steamers leave these shores to-morrow for England, carrying our highly important commercial intelligence. The news of the passage of the said American Tariff will doubtless cause much satisfaction among the manufacturing and iron masters of Great Britain. They should get up some splendid testimonial of their gratitude, to be presented to Messrs. Polk, Dallas & Walker. There is considerable curiosity as to the relative speed of the Great Britain and the Canadas, and a good many bets are pending on the arrival of each.

It is stated, we do not know on what authority, that the rate of interest of the Treasury Notes will be fixed at 3 1/2-10 per annum, or one cent a day on each hundred dollar, and the notes will be in circulation in a few days.

The notes of the White Plains Bank are now again redeemed by the agent in this city at the legal rate.

The securities in the Comptroller's hands are now of the safest description, the bonds and mortgages with the exception of $5,000, having been withdrawn and New York stocks substituted.

The restriction of this bank is due to the superiority of our free banking system as at present conducted.—Had this been an Albany Regency Safety Fund bank, the bill holders would probably have suffered a loss of 50 or 75 percent.

Mr. Oliver Lee of Buffalo died suddenly on Tuesday. Mr. Lee has for many years been favorably known as an energetic and successful man of business in Western New York. He was the President of the Atica and Buffalo Railroad Company, and President and manager of "Oliver Lee & Co.'s Bank of Buffalo."

The Buffalo Commercial says—"The past week has not been marked by any change of importance in monetary affairs. At this advanced period of the season when transactions have dwindled into comparative insignificance, the operations of the banks are in hardly worth notice, and the advent of new and such like calls will call for some farther extension of each facility." The mere fact of a great falling off in business has the effect of rendering the money market decidedly easier, and applications for loans are of course much more restricted. The general market is however characterized by a fair degree of activity in some departments of trade, but on the whole business presents an inactive appearance.

A letter from Savannah states that on the 27th Judge Wayne delivered the decision of the Court in the Bridge Case. The Judges concurring dismissed the bill of Mr. Shultz (with costs of court) upon its merits, its pleading and upon every point raised. Suspecting the demur of the Bank of the State of Georgia.

A New Orleans correspondent of the Charleston Courier says that Government has been under protest in New Orleans. The facts are these: A gentleman presented himself to the Government agent in this city, with a sight draft for $2,000, but the reply was that there were no funds, and would be none till the end of the week. The holder of the draft then asked for the agent's individual due bill, payable at the close of the week, which was refused. The draft was then immediately put into a notary's hands for protest.

Markets....Carefully reported for The Tribune.

FRIDAY, July 31.

ASHES.—There are no bills out to-day, and the business in Ashes is still at $3 30 to 40 per bushel.

COTTON.—The sales to-day have been trifling in price; there is no alarm, and operators continue firm in their estimate of the market, now that the crop is fully ripe and ready for market.

COFFEE.—The operators prefer waiting the result of later accounts per Hibernal, now due. Freight continue very much depressed. Engagements for coffee are made at 34 1/2 d. for Liverpool.

NEW ORLEANS.—The demand for cotton in New Orleans is still at $3 30 to 40 per bushel.

FLAX.—The demand for flax is still at $3 30 to 40 per bushel.

FLOUR AND MEAL.—The demand for shipment continues at about 400 bushels Michigan and Indiana have been taken down to $4 1/2 for Liverpool, shipped at 40/- sterlings. For home use there has been a fair demand and sales to consumers, but nothing to speak of in New England, except a few bushels at 40/- per bushel. The demand for wheat is still at $4 1/2-4 1/4 per bushel. Michigan and Indiana have been taken down to $4 1/2 per bushel. The grain was plump and large, and we learn that the crop is generally of a uniform quality, and has been gathered without having received any injury.

ST. LOUIS.—The market is steady and 150 bushels of bacon per barrel, with small sales.

LATHES.—Living tree at 47 1/2 per foot for fair to good.

WHISKY.—The market is steady and 150 bushels of bacon per barrel, with small sales.

CHARLES.—Living tree at 47 1/2 per foot for fair to good.

OLIVE.—A sale of 1,000 bushels Crude Whale has been made for export at 264cts, which is a decline. Linseed is quoted at 60cts per bushel for Country and City.
